№. 1551.

Petersbourg, May 27. N. S.

LAST Week M. Wolinski, late one of the Miniſters of the Cabinet, was examin'd again four Hours, and upon the Report of the Commiſſioners the Czarina order'd that he ſhould be remov'd from the Priſon of the Admiralty to the Fortreſs, and this Day Se'nnight he was [illegible]'d thither accordingly; which is an Indication [illegible]is Affairs are in a very bad Way. M. Simo[illegible] Vice-Preſident of the Admiralty has alſo been [illegible] up and committed to the Fortreſs, together. M. Chrouskoff late a Commiſſioner of the Admi[illegible] and ſome other Perſons of inferior Rank; which Priſoners are interrogated every Day by the Ge[illegible] Uſchakoff, and the Privy-Counſellor Nepleuf. [illegible] of them have made very important Diſcoveries, [illegible]urſuance of which the Conduct of ſeveral other [illegible]ns is watch'd very narrowly; and juſt now we [illegible]hat four more Perſons have been taken up this [illegible]ng, and committed to the Fortreſs. The Cza[illegible]as ſent a Circular Letter to her Miniſters in [illegible]gn Countries, with her Reaſons for removing [illegible]Wolinski from his Employments, and taking him [illegible]Cuſtody.

Lipſick, June 11: N.S. The Princeſs Wilhelmi[illegible]Charlotta, Dowager of the late Prince Charles [illegible]erick of Anhalt-Bernbourg, dy'd the 30th ult. [illegible]ernrode in the 58th Year of her Age. The Court [illegible]axe-Weiſſenfels is gone into Mourning for the [illegible] Regent's eldeſt Son, who dy'd at Weiſſenfels [illegible]8th Inſtant. We hear by Letters from Ham[illegible], that the Ducheſs Wife of Duke Charles Fre[illegible]k of Mecklembourg-Strelitz is brought to Bed [illegible] a Princeſs.

Hanover, June 30. N. S. The King of Great [illegible]in our Moſt Serene Elector, being now recover'd [illegible] the Fatigue of his Journey, begins to give Au[illegible]ce alternately to the Generals and Miniſters of [illegible] upon the Affairs Military and Civil. The [illegible]rning ſettled here by the Court for the Death of [illegible]King of Pruſſia is for three Months: The laſt [illegible]Weeks of that Term is appointed for Second [illegible]rning.

Rome, May 28. N. S. The Cardinals having form[illegible] Party in the Conclave in Favour of Cardinal [illegible]adini, who appeared upon the Scrutiny to have [illegible]y conſiderable Number of Votes, his Eminency [illegible]declar'd in the following Terms to the Sacred [illegible]ege that he does not deſire to be choſe:

Moſt Eminent Brethren,

'Tho' I am conſcious how little I deſerve the Ho[illegible]ur that ſome of this Aſſembly intend me, I am [illegible]vertheleſs bound in Gratitude to acknowledge it. [illegible]he Mark of Eſteem which I thereby receive, does [illegible]t render me inſenſible of what I am deficient in [illegible] merit your Suffrages. A Life which it has [illegible]eaſed God to prolong to more than Fourſcore and [illegible]wo Years, is not fit to perform the Pontifical [illegible]unctions. The State of the Church, that of Eu[illegible]pe, and the Calamities of the Eccleſiaſtick State, [illegible]quire that a Pope ſhould be of ſuch an Age, as [illegible]at he may hope to ſee the Fruits of his Apoſtolical [illegible]are. For my Part, being ready to lay down this [illegible]ife, I ſpend the few Moments of it that remain, [illegible] Prayers to the Almighty that he may be pleaſed [illegible] inſpire you with Sentiments for his Glory; that [illegible]e may unite your Suffrages, and give a Pope to [illegible]hriſtendom, whoſe Actions may all ſhew that they [illegible]e determin'd by the Holy Spirit.

This Example of Cardinal Corradini's Modeſty has [illegible] been follow'd by Cardinal Aldobrandi, who has [illegible]ewiſe entreated the Sacred College not to caſt their [illegible]s upon him.

On the 24th we heard, that a Number of Banditti [illegible]airing to Sonnino with an Intent to attack a Mo[illegible]tery there, the Friers immediately ſounded the [illegible]arm Bell, whereupon the Inhabitants of that Place [illegible]embled, and went to the Captain of the Militia, [illegible]iring him to come out and head them, and to grant [illegible]em a Drum; but that the Captain would not open [illegible]e Door, and gave them the Drum out of a Win[illegible]ow, refuſing to come forth and mount his Horſe; [illegible]hereupon the Inhabitants were oblig'd to chuſe a Commander from among themſelves, and they had the good Fortune to put the Banditti to Flight. We hear that the Captain is condemn'd to have his Sword broke by the Hangman for his Cowardice, and then to be baniſh'd.

IRELAND.

Dublin, June 3. Lambert Hughes, D.D. one of the Senior Fellows in our Univerſity, being ſome time ago expell'd by the Provoſt, he appeal'd to the Viſitors of the Univerſity againſt the Provoſt's Decree, and after ſeveral Hearings and Adjournments, the Viſitors Yeſterday confirmed the Expulſion.

Yeſterday Mr. Mercier, M. A. Mr. Andrews, Candid M. A. and M. Holt, Senior B. A. were declared Fellows of Trinity College Dublin.

Laſt Night there were Soldiers in ſeveral of our Watch-houſes, and a Company at our Market-houſe, and a Party of Horſe patrol'd through the Streets to prevent Tumults and Riots.

The ſame Night —— Sharman, Eſq; Nephew to the late General Kane, was married to Miſs O Neil, Daughter to the late John O Neil of Shane's Caſtle in the County of Antrim, Eſq;

LONDON.

Some Advices from Baſſora in Perſia dated the 5th of March ſay, that according to the laſt Advices they received from Kouli Kan, which were dated in November laſt, he was then incamp'd with his Army on the Bank of the River Indus; that he had ſuffered a very conſiderable Diſaſter, and loſt a great Part of his Booty; that his Army was in a very bad State, ſo that he would be oblig'd to winter in thoſe Parts; that the Kan of Candahar had laid hold of that Opportunity to take Arms againſt him; and that the Ogehoons, a People who inhabit the Mountains, had alſo declared againſt him.

Letters of the 16th of May from Tunis ſay, that on the 12th 500 Men of the New Dey's Troops advancing before Kerovan, a neighbouring Caſtle to which Aſſen Benethi the Old Dey was retired, attack'd it with the utmoſt Fury, ſo that the Old Dey with ſome of his Adherents endeavour'd to ride away, but was purſued by Sidy Jones, one of his Nephews who commanded the Attack, who overtook him, gave him his Death's Wound, then cut off his Head and ſent it to Sidy-Seliman his Brother at Tunis, where it was expoſed over-againſt Kirovan Caſtle.

Thoſe of the 31ſt ult. from Berlin ſay, that the King, who went four Days before to Rheinsberg, has granted his Mother the Queen Dowager an Augmentation of 1000 Rixdollars per Month, for her Table; that tho' his Majeſty has given Liberty to the late King's favourite Corps of tall Grenadiers either to continue in his Service or to retire, there were but very few that deſired their Diſcharge; and 'tis believ'd thoſe that remain in the Service will be incorporated in the other Regiments.

Letters from Naples of the 24th ult. N. S. ſay, that the two Iriſh Captains of the Regiment of Limerick, who are under Proſecution there for the Murder of their Colonel ſome time ago, are allow'd each an Advocate.

Thoſe of the ſame Date from Madrid ſay, that the King of Spain has paſs'd a Decree whereby he declares, that the Imployments vacant in the Weſt Indies may hereafter be purchaſed; which they doubt not will bring a vaſt Sum into the King's Treaſury.

Some Advices from Bonn say, the Elector of Cologne will go this Summer to Holland.

From the London Gazette.

Berlin, June 12. Col. Count Trouches is appointed his Pruſſian Majeſty's Envoy Extraordinary to the King of Great Britain, and is accordingly ſoon to ſet out for Hanover.

Hanover, June 15. N. S. On the 7th Inſtant his Majeſty arriv'd here in good Health. This Court went into Mourning laſt Sunday for the King of Pruſſia. The Lord Harrington arriv'd here Yeſterday.

Whitehall, June 10. Yeſterday came Advice, that his Majeſty's Yacht the Mary, having on board her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Heſſe, which ſailed from Greenwich laſt Friday at Seven in the Morning, came upon the Coaſt of Holland the next Morning, and the Wind being fair proceeded up the Maeſe to Rotterdam, where her Royal Highneſs arrived at one a-Clock in the Afternoon.

We hear from Froom in the County of Somerſet, that on Monday the 26th of May laſt the honourable Society of Clothworkers, long eſtabliſh'd in that populous and induſtrious Town, held their annual Feaſt, which was celebrated with a great deal of peaceful Pomp, Order and Decorum. The Company made a very decent, handſome Appearance, and after hearing a Sermon ſuitable to the Occaſion preach'd by the Rev. Mr. Scot, they march'd in a regular Proceſſion round the Town, preceded by Trumpets and a Concert of Muſic. Their Banner was very large and extremely ſplendid, repreſenting in the Centre the Arms of the Society beautifully painted in a Field of Scarlet. 'Twas embroider'd with rich Tiſſue; the two Extremities were ſupported by Pages, and wav'd over their Heads in a Trail of Silver. The Proceſſion terminated in a handſome Dinner and the Entertainments uſually attending it, till the Shades of Night cloſed the Solemnity and concluded the Triumphs of the Day.

Laſt Tueſday died at Bath, in the 103d Year of his Age, Capt. Thompſon, formerly Commander of his Majeſty's Ship the Boyne.

Laſt Monday Night the Coroners Jury ſat on the Body of Mr. Dupee, of Conduit-ſtreet, and brought in their Verdict Lunacy.

Yeſterday the Tents, &c. were delivered from the Tower to the proper Officers for the intended Incampments.

And this Day a Party out of the Three Regiments of Foot-guards, the 2d and 3d Troops of Life-guards, and the 1ſt Troop of Horſe-grenadier-guards, are to march to Hounſlow-heath to pitch the Tents, &c.

Yeſterday Mrs. Margaret Leighland fell down Stairs at her Lodgings at Charing-croſs, and died inſtantly.

Yeſterday two Men taking up Ballaſt at King Henry's Stairs, one of 'em being likely to fall over-board, and the other endeavouring to ſave him, they both unfortunately fell over and were drown'd.

Yeſterday Morning died of an Obſtruction of Urine, at his Lodgings on Ludgate-hill, Dr. Hook, Proprietor of the New Wells near the London Spaw.

On Monday laſt John Rork was committed to New Priſon by Col. De Veil, for decoying Walter Reeves into France, and there againſt his Will and Conſent ſelling him to ſome Iriſh Officers in the French King's Service, who, upon his refuſing to take on, put him in a Dungeon loaded with Irons for a conſiderable time, and it was at the Hazard of his Life that he made his Eſcape into England.

And Yeſterday Mr. Bartholomew Greenwood was committed to Newgate upon the poſitive Oath of Mr. Roger Wheatley, for robbing upon the Highway near Camberwell, and taking from him one Guinea and a half: Mr. Wheatley was ſo poſitive upon the Re-examination before Col. De Veil, that he would hear nothing that could be alledged in favour of the Priſoner, in whoſe Behalf ſeveral Gentlemen appeared.

The only true Specifick Tincture

For the TOOTH-ACH, and all Diſorders and Defects of the TEETH and GUMS whatever, which has given ſuch intire Satisfaction to the Nobility and Gentry for above Twenty Years paſt, by its vaſtly excelling all other Things, ever formerly invented or lately contrived for theſe Purpoſes;

SINCE one Drop of it gives infallible and inſtant Eaſe in the moſt tormenting Pain, when nothing elſe will, and not only takes it away in a Moment, but abſolutely cures the TOOTH-ACH, ſo as certainly to prevent its Return.

At only once uſing it makes the ſouleſt Teeth moſt beautifully white, aſſuredly faſtens thoſe that are looſe, and infallibly preſerves the Teeth from growing rotten, and thoſe a little decay'd, from becoming worſe: It perfectly cures the Scurvy in the Gums, cauſing them to grow up to the Teeth again to a Admiration, and alſo occaſions a Sweet Breath.

It is neither diſagreeable to the Smell or Taſte, but effectually preſerves the Teeth and Gums from all Manner of Scurvy, Corruption, and Putrefaction, keeps them ſound, good, and in moſt beautiful Order, and may be depended upon to anſwer the Character here given of it, literally, and in every Reſpect, as Perſons innumerable have experienc'd.

But theſe inimitable Qualities, and ſolely inherent Virtues by which it has juſtly gain'd ſuch an univerſal and unparallel'd great character, have occaſion'd, as uſual in ſuch caſes, various and frequent Endeavours to mimick it, ſome under the ſame Name and in the very Words of this Advertiſement, and others under other Names; be careful, therefore, to have the right, which may be infallibly relied upon, and which is to be had only, by the Author's Appointment, of the Gentlewoman, at the Two Blue-Poſts, in Haydon-Yard, in the Minories, London, at 2 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.

Good Allowance to thoſe who take Quantities for Exportation
